SWI Group announces Templus as Spanish Partner to deploy 13 MW of AI Capacity

Today, Templus, Europe's leading platform of regional and interconnected data centers, announced a strategic agreement with SWI Group to deploy 13 MW of AI infrastructure in Spain, marking one of the country's most significant AI-ready infrastructure projects and reinforcing Templus' commitment to accelerating the next generation of artificial intelligence data center solutions.

The deployment represents a pioneering milestone for the Spanish digital infrastructure market, bringing to Europe the first deployment of one of the world's leading AI platforms and establishing Spain as a strategic location for advanced AI workloads. The project will support high-density AI operations designed to meet growing demand from enterprises seeking scalable, low-latency, and sovereign AI capabilities.

Jaume Sabater, CEO Stoneweg, Part of SWI Group commented: "This partnership and agreement solidifies SWI Group's business objective of creating the best digital infrastructure, within the best locations, with the most advanced and up-to-date AI Solutions, and we are very excited to launch this with Templus."

As AI adoption accelerates across Europe, the collaboration between Templus and SWI Group will provide customers with access to state-of-the-art infrastructure supported by highly efficient, AI-ready data center environments.
